

Library Services and Programming

The Taylor Memorial Library provides books and materials for information, entertainment, intellectual development and enrichment of the people of the community. The Taylor Memorial Library offers reference assistance and readers' advisory to patrons in person, by phone, by mail, or by e-mail. The Taylor Memorial Library also offers planned programs with the purpose of promoting library materials, facilities, or services, while offering the community an informational, entertaining, or cultural experience.

In service to the community, the Taylor Memorial Library endeavors to:

- Select, organize, and make available books and materials
- Provide informational guidance and assistance to patrons
- Initiate programs, displays, and exhibits
- Cooperate and partner with other community agencies, organizations, groups, educators, businesses, and individuals to extend library service and impact
- Secure information and materials beyond the library's collection when requested
- Lend information and materials to other libraries upon request
- Maintain a balance in service to various age groups
- Cooperate with, but not perform the functions of, school or other institutional libraries
- Provide service hours which best meet the needs of the community
- Provide services to all patrons without prejudice, discrimination, or stereotyping
- Make all people feel welcome in the library
- Regularly review library service being offered
