Volunteers

The Board of Trustees encourages individuals and groups to volunteer their time and efforts in the service of the Taylor Memorial Library.

A volunteer is a person who performs tasks for the Taylor Memorial Library without wages, benefits, or compensation of any kind. Volunteers supplement the efforts of paid library staff to provide quality library collections, services, and programs. Volunteers work with the status of “at-will” employees and are given tasks that are supervised by the Library Director.

Volunteers are recognized by the public as representatives of the library and shall be guided by the same work and behavior codes as paid staff. Minor children may only work as volunteers with the consent of a custodial parent or guardian.
